Common Myths of Special Education

September 19th

10:00am – 12:00pm

OPWDD Large Conference Room

415-A Oser Avenue

Hauppauge, NY 11788

Patricia will speak about the myths surrounding special education law and arm you with advocacy tools as you go into the new school year!

Patricia was inspired to concentrate her practice in the area of special education law, special needs planning, guardianships, and estate planning by personal experience with the special education system. As a result of this experience Patricia has compassion that drives her to work with families and individuals with special needs, advocating and planning for their futures for over 5 years
